Game Is to Be Played in Home
Gymnasium; Large Attendance Expected.

Last year the Aggie five was one of the best in this section of the country, and Coach Page of the Panhandle outfit is confident that his team this year will be a dark horse in his conference. While playing at Nebraska, Coach Page was twice named as all Missouri Valley center. He stands about six feet and eight inches tall and is much of a man. His men have doubtless had considerable experience in high school and most of them are playing with one or two years of college experience behind them. Good games should be the result when these boys engage the Buffaloes and a large attendance at the games is expected.

These games will be played at the Buffalo Gym and the admission is 50 cents to those who do not hold the blanket tax. The doors will be opened at 7:15 as usual and the game will start promptly at eight o'clock.

PODZEMNY CASE IS TO BE TRIED WITH NEW JURY

JURY FAILS TO AGREE AND ANOTHER IS CALLED.

Umbarger Farmer Charged With Violation of Prohibition Statutes.

The jury hearing the case of O. J. Podzemny of Umbarger, charged with violating the prohibition laws, was dismissed today when its members reported themselves unable to reach a verdict. Courthouse gossip which seemed most reliable indicated that the jury was deadlocked with eleven votes favoring conviction and one for acquittal.

Another jury will be impaneled tomorrow to hear the case again, according to Edward W. Thomerson, district attorney. One of the cases against Podzemny was dismissed this week.

Mr. Thomerson, who was ill last week and unable to attend to his duties, has been in Canyon all this week. His work last week was cared for by his assistant, Grady Hazlewood.

Two convictions were turned in by juries during the week. Lehman C. Carpenter, a negro porter for the Pullman Company who was accused of larceny, pleaded guilty and was given five years in the penitentiary. The sentence, however, was suspended.

L. L. Blackman, indicted and tried on a charge of driving a car while intoxicated, was given 45 days in jail. The jury's verdict was brought in Tuesday.

John T. Ward, suing S. W. White and others for judgment on foreclosure of a vendor's lien note, was given a judgment in the suit. Divorces were granted Vivian McAlpine from Rip McAlpine, Wednesday, and T. W. Johnson from Anna V. Johnson, Tuesday.

G. G. Foster and others suing J. R. Cole for commission on a real estate sale, were given judgment against Cole.

An injunction suit brought by M. M. Tucker, Randall County farmer living near Happy to prevent the county from building a road through his land, still was in the hands of the jury late today.

Flesher and Knighton. Many useful and ornamental gifts were received. They were presented to Miss McIntire on a tea-cart pushed by Jean Marie Kleinschmidt, dressed as a bride, and Little Tom Knighton as groom. French Approves Plans for Road South to Happy

Routing and general plans for the highway south to Happy and Swisher County have been completed by county engineer A. E. Dyatt and approved by W. A. French, division engineer for the state highway department.

Indications from members of the state highway department were that contracts for grading and drainage structure on the road south from Canyon would be let in March, county officials said.

The routing approved by French keeps the highway east of the railroad for the entire Randall County stretch. Plans drawn by Mr. Dyatt will be sent to the state highway commission in the near future for final approval.

The situation remained unchanged on the routing of the highway west to Hereford, according to Mr. Dyatt.

Utilities Office Moved to New Building Friday

The Texas Utilities Company offices and retail department was moved last week to new quarters in a building erected for the company by Mrs. R. W. Ratcliff in the 1600 block on 4th Avenue.

Extensive sales rooms and offices for company officials are provided in the new building.

The new building is one block closer to the square than the one occupied by the company since it was given the electric power and light franchise in Canyon.

Attractive spaces are provided for window displays and show cases in the retail department. A system of ceiling lights and overhead flood lights will make the showroom the best lighted in Canyon.

Office space for bookkeepers and for R. B. Meredith, manager of the office here, is arranged immediately behind the salesroom, and the remainder of the space has been utilized to care for a large reserve stock of electrical appliances and fixtures.

After the business meeting the group enjoyed a supper given by Mrs. Lindbloom.

Buffalo Basketeers Eke Out Pair of Games From Oklahoma Bulldogs Here Last Week End

Lacking the polish which usually characterizes their play, but fighting grimly and doggedly and not without some degree of brilliance as a result of their daring, Burton's Buffalo Basketeers managed to eke out a pair of well earned wins over the Southwestern Oklahoma Bulldogs on Friday and Saturday evenings by scores of 33 to 31 and 25 to 19 respectively. Due to the extreme closeness of the scores and the sustained speed with which the games were played they were chock full of thrills and suspense despite the roughness which was flagrantly in evidence.

Ere the opening game was many minutes old it looked like flowers for the homelings when Harris, long guard of the invaders, sank three breath taking putts from mid-field. But this boy soon lost his rabbit's foot and the Buffs

MISS ELIZABETH CROSON IS

Machine Turns Turtle on Curve
and is Wrecked—Driver Escapes Unhurt.

Clyde Allard of Amarillo, driver of the car, escaped with minor cuts and bruises.

Miss Croson is being attended by physicians at the home of her mother here. She received serious cuts from flying glass and apparently was suffering from wrenched ligaments in her neck and shoulders.

Her condition, while serious, was not described as dangerous by her physicians. The coupe occupied by Miss Croson and her companion went into the ditch when another car pulled into the highway from a side road, according to reliable reports. The coupe turned turtle and was badly damaged.

About 400 poll tax receipts had been issued late Wednesday from the office of John Fry, sheriff and tax collector. Seven hundred fifty persons had paid property taxes, with only 15 days remaining before the imposition of penalties.

The club will be divided in half this week and an attendance contest staged between the two groups, it was decided Tuesday. Rule Meredith and "Pinky" Hand were elected to captain the groups. Hickman and Keller are members of the large force of men maintained by the state to enforce its vehicle license laws.

E. R. Udaly, swine specialist, will be the other speaker. Udaly will also take the feeding side of the stock raising industry. Udaly has made a special study of hog feeding and has received much credit for his efforts in cutting down the cost of feeding without affecting the stock.

The short course opens in the auditorium of the Happy High school tomorrow afternoon at 1:30 o'clock.

1929 COMMERCE BUDGET TO BE HEARD TONIGHT

CHAMBER COMMERCE DINNER
TO BE AT M. E. CHURCH.

Officials Will Present 1928 Statement and Explain Plans for New Year Activity.

The Canyon Chamber of Commerce will hold one of the most important luncheon-meetings of the year tonight in the basement of the Methodist Church. The 1929 budget plans will be presented, and a digest of the 1928 program made, by officers of the organization.

A hotel for Canyon is to be the one big 1929 objective of the chamber of commerce this year, according to members of the board of directors. The directors and members feel that few improvements needed in the city can be placed on an equal basis with that of hotel facilities for the city's guests.

The hotel, if acceptable to Canyon, would be modern in every respect, large enough to meet the existing needs, and entirely fire-proof. The chamber has taken for its slogan this year, "Our January Meeting in a New Hotel."

D. A. Shirley was to be in charge of tonight's meeting in the absence of W. A. Warren, president of the chamber.

The meeting will open tonight at 7 o'clock. Officers planned to begin promptly on time and to close early. Tickets were on sale today at 50 cents each.

D. A. Shirley, O. W. Gano, and T. C. Thompson, were scheduled as speakers for the dinner.

Mr. Thompson has as his subject, "Why Everyone Should Belong to the Chamber of Commerce." This talk was expected to be the beginning of a drive for 100 per cent membership of Canyon business men in the chamber. O. W. Gano, secretary of the club, will discuss the 1928 budget and explain amendments and omissions in the 1929 plans.

A round table discussion will follow the program of speeches.

Fire Company Picks Leaders, Plans Banquet

Allen Farlow was elected president of the Canyon volunteer fire company at a meeting of the members last week, and Frank Hicks, chief, was retained as director of the unit.

K. E. Prieze was named assistant chief and Lee Foster re-elected secretary-treasurer at the meeting.

The annual banquet of the organization, originally planned for tonight, has been postponed because of conflicts and probably will be held next week, according to members of the company.

Efforts to secure accident insurance for all active members of the company are now being made, but a means of financing the protective measure has not yet been found, it was understood.

Canyon's low insurance rate has been maintained largely through the excellent equipment and rating of its fire department. Members of the company have assumed all risks personally in the past but both city and fire department officials are now seeking to give them more adequate protection while on duty.

French Approves Plans for Road South to Happy

Routing and general plans for the highway south to Happy and Swisher County have been completed by county engineer A. E. Dyatt and approved by W. A. French, division engineer for the state highway department.

Indications from members of the state highway department were that contracts for grading and drainage structure on the road south from Canyon would be let in March, county officials said.

The routing approved by French keeps the highway east of the railroad for the entire Randall County stretch. Plans drawn by Mr. Dyatt will be sent to the state highway commission in the near future for final approval.

The situation remained unchanged on the routing of the highway west to Hereford, according to Mr. Dyatt.

Utilities Office Moved to New Building Friday

The Texas Utilities Company offices and retail department was moved last week to new quarters in a building erected for the company by Mrs. R. W. Ratcliff in the 1600 block on 4th Avenue.

Extensive sales rooms and offices for company officials are provided in the new building.

The new building is one block closer to the square than the one occupied by the company since it was given the electric power and light franchise in Canyon.

Attractive spaces are provided for window displays and show cases in the retail department. A system of ceiling lights and overhead flood lights will make the showroom the best lighted in Canyon.

Office space for bookkeepers and for R. B. Meredith, manager of the office here, is arranged immediately behind the salesroom, and the remainder of the space has been utilized to care for a large reserve stock of electrical appliances and fixtures.

WOODMAN CIRCLE IS FORMED IN CANYON

On December 12 a Woodman Circle was organized at the home of Mrs. M. A. Henson. Mrs. Jennie Lindbloom, district manager from Amarillo assisted with the organization.

The first meeting after organization was held Wednesday, Jan. 2 at the I. O. O. F. Hall. The Amarillo ladies of the Woodman's Circle under the direction of Mrs. Jennie Lindbloom initiated and installed the officers of the Canyon organization, which is to be known as the Orange Grove, No. 2023. After the business meeting the group enjoyed a supper given by Mrs. Lindbloom.

This organization is starting with much enthusiasm, and those who are sponsoring it feel quite encouraged over its beginning. There have been several applications balloted on, and it is the intention to take all the applicants to date to Amarillo for initiation January 24.

Buffalo Basketeers Eke Out Pair of Games From Oklahoma Bulldogs Here Last Week End

Lacking the polish which usually characterizes their play, but fighting grimly and doggedly and not without some degree of brilliance as a result of their daring, Burton's Buffalo Basketeers managed to eke out a pair of well earned wins over the Southwestern Oklahoma Bulldogs on Friday and Saturday evenings by scores of 33 to 31 and 25 to 19 respectively. Due to the extreme closeness of the scores and the sustained speed with which the games were played they were chock full of thrills and suspense despite the roughness which was flagrantly in evidence.

Ere the opening game was many minutes old it looked like flowers for the homelings when Harris, long guard of the invaders, sank three breath taking putts from mid-field. But this boy soon lost his rabbit's foot and the Buffs

GIRL INJURED SERIOUSLY ON AMARILLO ROAD

MISS ELIZABETH CROSON IS HURT IN CAR WRECK.

Machine Turns Turtle on Curve
and is Wrecked—Driver Escapes Unhurt.

Miss Elizabeth Croson, daughter of Mrs. N. A. Croson, was seriously hurt last Sunday afternoon when the small car in which she was riding left the road on a curve five miles north of Canyon and overturned.

Clyde Allard of Amarillo, driver of the car, escaped with minor cuts and bruises.

Miss Croson is being attended by physicians at the home of her mother here. She received serious cuts from flying glass and apparently was suffering from wrenched ligaments in her neck and shoulders.

Her condition, while serious, was not described as dangerous by her physicians.

The coupe occupied by Miss Croson and her companion went into the ditch when another car pulled into the highway from a side road, according to reliable reports. The coupe turned turtle and was badly damaged.

Poll Tax Still is Lagging; Auto Licenses Climbing

About 400 poll tax receipts had been issued late Wednesday from the office of John Fry, sheriff and tax collector. Seven hundred fifty persons had paid property taxes, with only 15 days remaining before the imposition of penalties. Several hundred unlicensed automobiles remained in the county, with 1125 license tags already issued.

The branch office at 3610 Tyler Street, in charge of E. G. Mills, deputy collector, has maintained a steady record of business, according to Mr. Fry.

Students Please Rotarians With Program Tuesday

Students from the College again were features of the luncheon of the Canyon Rotary Club last Tuesday.

Miss Marie Stalcup and her accompanist, Ples Harper, and Miss Zella Mae Walser, reader, won hearty applause from the Rotarians.

Miss Stalcup sang two ballads, and Miss Walser read "The Village Philosopher" and "A Tale of Hard Times."

The club will be divided in half this week and an attendance contest staged between the two groups, it was decided Tuesday. Rule Meredith and "Pinky" Hand were elected to captain the groups. The division having the poorest attendance record will, under the terms of the contest, be hosts to the other group at a dinner party sometimes next month.

Visitors at the luncheon this week were: Turner Broom, Amarillo; T. J. Wagner, Amarillo; B. F. Anderson, Amarillo; C. W. Rogers, Amarillo; William L. Young, Amarillo; S. G. Moore, Canyon, member of the real estate firm of Foster, Moore, and Elliston, Prof. J. S. Humphreys of the College, and F. J. Boggs, Dallas.

Plans Drive On Owners of Autos Without License

Fred Hickman and J. C. Keller, license and weight inspectors for the state highway department, were in Canyon this week checking up on unlicensed automobiles, according to Sheriff John Fry.

The men planned to return to Canyon next week and start a campaign against drivers of unlicensed cars, Mr. Fry said. Hickman and Keller plan to work out of the sheriff's office here and arrest drivers of cars not displaying 1929 licenses, according to Mr. Fry.

Hickman and Keller are members of the large force of men maintained by the state to enforce its vehicle license laws.

Dr. R. P. Jarrett, head of the Department of Education, is instructing a group concentrating on the study of mental tests and measurements which meets Thursday.

Farmers' Short Course to Start at Happy Friday

Farmers of Randall and Swisher counties have been invited to attend a one-day short course at Happy tomorrow, according to W. H. Upchurch, Randall County extension agent.

County Agent Martin of Swisher and Upchurch are co-operating in arranging for the course. E. N. Holmgren, poultry specialist at the Texas Agricultural and Mechanical College, will be the chief speaker, dealing particularly with feeding problems encountered by poultry raisers.

E. R. Udaly, swine specialist, will be the other speaker. Udaly will also take the feeding side of the stock raising industry. Udaly has made a special study of hog feeding and has received much credit for his efforts in cutting down the cost of feeding without affecting the stock.

The short course opens in the auditorium of the Happy High school tomorrow afternoon at 1:30 o'clock.

1929 COMMERCE BUDGET TO BE HEARD TONIGHT

CHAMBER COMMERCE DINNER
TO BE AT M. E. CHURCH.

Officials Will Present 1928 Statement and Explain Plans for New Year Activity.

The Canyon Chamber of Commerce will hold one of the most important luncheon-meetings of the year tonight in the basement of the Methodist Church. The 1929 budget plans will be presented, and a digest of the 1928 program made, by officers of the organization.

A hotel for Canyon is to be the one big 1929 objective of the chamber of commerce this year, according to members of the board of directors. The directors and members feel that few improvements needed in the city can be placed on an equal basis with that of hotel facilities for the city's guests.

The hotel, if acceptable to Canyon, would be modern in every respect, large enough to meet the existing needs, and entirely fire-proof. The chamber has taken for its slogan this year, "Our January Meeting in a New Hotel."

D. A. Shirley was to be in charge of tonight's meeting in the absence of W. A. Warren, president of the chamber.

The meeting will open tonight at 7 o'clock. Officers planned to begin promptly on time and to close early. Tickets were on sale today at 50 cents each.

D. A. Shirley, O. W. Gano, and T. C. Thompson, were scheduled as speakers for the dinner.

Mr. Shirley will discuss plans for 1929. Mr. Thompson has as his subject, "Why Everyone Should Belong to the Chamber of Commerce." This talk was expected to be the beginning of a drive for 100 per cent membership of Canyon business men in the chamber. O. W. Gano, secretary of the club, will discuss the 1928 budget and explain amendments and omissions in the 1929 plans.

A round table discussion will follow the program of speeches.

Fire Company Picks Leaders, Plans Banquet

Allen Farlow was elected president of the Canyon volunteer fire company at a meeting of the members last week, and Frank Hicks, chief, was retained as director of the unit.

K. E. Frieze was named assistant chief and Lee Foster re-elected secretary-treasurer at the meeting.

The annual banquet of the organization, originally planned for tonight, has been postponed because of conflicts and probably will be held next week, according to members of the company.

Efforts to secure accident insurance for all active members of the company are now being made, but a means of financing the protective measure has not yet been found, it was understood.

Canyon's low insurance rate has been maintained largely through the excellent equipment and rating of its fire department. Members of the company have assumed all risks personally in the past but both city and fire department officials are now seeking to give them more adequate protection while on duty.

DON'T LAUGH AT PROGRESS

A prediction has been made that in the future there will be air boats as big or bigger than the largest modern steamers.

You may believe this or not—but do not be one of the laughers.

Recently the twenty-fifth anniversary of flying was observed. When the Wright Brothers first invented the airplane, pretty nearly everybody laughed. Think of the airplane of today.

To go back into the past, a great many people laughed at Columbus. At Gallileo. At Fulton. When the first steamship plied the waters of the Hudson, persons lined along the shore roared their contempt for the funny little boat Fulton had launched.

From time immemorial, indeed, the pioneers in science and discovery have been hampered in their work by the laughers. Those who would not believe. Even the phonograph and the motion picture machine were at first regarded with derision and disbelief. At most these wonderful boons to humanity were considered as harmless toys for children.

The world is learning its lesson. Today new inventions are greeted with respect. The day of the laugher, the haw-hawer, is drawing to a close. The avenues for discovery, the road to progress, are more open than ever before.

Be one of those to welcome the new thing when it comes along—do not shame yourself by laughing at it.

When the impossible is predicted, remember that in the course of modern progress many a thing thought impossible has become both possible and practicable.

THE IDEAL MAN

Two hundred and twenty college girls in the East were asked some mighty important questions in a special questionnaire regarding the types of men they seek as husbands.

Of the two hundred and twenty, only twelve insisted on college graduates. Only two demanded good looks. One wanted an athlete. Fifty were opposed to drinkers. More than 100 stipulated honesty, sincerity, education and culture.

Wealth and fame were entirely ignored. But the one quality most in demand—guess—was a sense of humor!

Evidently the girls agree with the poet that "the man worth while is the man who can smile."

If this questionnaire is indeed representative of the state of women's minds the country over, it behooves all young men to learn to laugh and laugh heartily.

Men who are not handsome, wealthy or famous may now console themselves. As long as they have a sense of humor, some girl will fall in love with them.

But what man does not think he has a sense of humor? All men seem to be eligible for affection, to judge them by their own opinions.

We are inclined to think that the girls practiced a little subtlety, as they often do. We can't believe they want to pass up wealth and fame—these things have always lured girls. But being feminine, they mention these

TWO COOLIDGE VIRTUES.

Reasonable expectation of life is now limited to fifty-five years for the average. Formerly, when open sewers ran through streets, with graveyards on hillsides draining into wells below, life averaged less than twenty years. Science says we already have sufficient medical knowledge to make life's expectation twelve years longer, but we don't use what we know.

The big problem is extending life for men and women past fifty. Barring cancer and other troubles, not understood, prolonging life is not complicated. Eat, sleep, exercise and breathe properly and living to ninety will be difficult. Eating is especially important. We are what we eat.

Lugi Cornaro proved it when, at forty years of age, doctors told him his case was hopeless.

Of solid food, with fifteen ounces of light wine per day, wrote an interesting book when past ninety, lived past one hundred and wrote mount my horse without difficulty to the Archbishop of Venice: "I and to live past ninety to realize that the world is beautiful." He made his wife live as he lived, and she passed one hundred. Francis Bacon supplies interesting details of Cornaro's life, as do other ancient writers.

An association organized in honor of Woodrow Wilson held its annual dinner, but didn't give a peace prize to anybody. Secretary Kellogg certainly worked hard enough to deserve a prize.

President Coolidge deserves two prizes, for continuing to mind his own business, and for minding the business of the United States, leaving Europeans to mind theirs.

Perhaps the Woodrow Wilson committee don't like to honor any Republican, like the colored lady whose apartment was invaded by a burglar, while a Bryan parade was passing. Asked why she didn't scream, she put her head out of the window and replied, "I didn't want folks to think I was hollering

How to Pick a Wife

By Dr. Frank Crane

The most important question in the world for a man to decide is not his attitude toward the tariff, or prohibition, or the income tax, but what manner of woman he is going to live with all his life. Other questions may come and go, but this one goes on forever. To use a term of Bacon's, "It comes home to men's business and bosoms."

A preacher once came to John Wesley and asked his advice as to whether he should marry a certain woman. "Why ask me?" said Mr. Wesley. "You have already made up your mind or you wouldn't have consulted me."

But a few words of counsel may not be amiss.

1. Marry for love. Any other reason, money, fame, convenience, or anything else, is disastrous.

2. Marry some one approximately of your age. A marriage between May and December usually does not turn out well.

3. Marry a healthy woman. It may be all right to love a sickly woman, you may make all sorts of poems to her eyebrow and cherish her as an ideal, but, generally, do not marry her.

4. Do not marry a bad woman to reform her, and let no woman marry an evil man to reform him. Let the preachers do that. Marriage is not a reformatory institution, it is for pleasure.

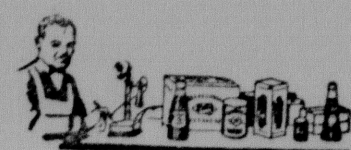

5. Select a woman with a sense of humor. If possible find one who is cheerful. You can overcome almost anything but perpetual gloom. You will find that you need, more than anything else, to be perpetually cheered. Not that you want a Cheshire cat, perpetually grinning, but you want a reasonable amount of cheer.

6. Select a woman with common sense. This goes farthest in the long run. Do not select a fool, even if she has a pretty face. And

Longer Working Days For Hens Increase Egg Profits

Longer working days for hens, especially in the fall and winter months when eggs are highest in price, have been found by the United States Department of Agriculture to be a ready means of securing more profits from the farm flock. Egg prices follow a well-defined curve, being lowest in April and gradually increasing thru July and August. They show a more marked increase in September and finally reach the peak price in November or early December.

During the fall and winter months the shorter days so limit the feeding time of the average farm flock that egg production declines. On the department's experimental poultry farm at Beltsville, Maryland, electric lights are used to lengthen the days. They are usually started about October 1 and continued until the middle of March. A White Leghorn pullet last year laid 310 eggs, working throughout the fall and winter by the aid of electric lights to get sufficient feed for her production.

In two years' tests in which lights were used at Beltsville from about November 1 to March 20 the production of a pen of fifty pullets was increased the first year by 50.2 dozen eggs, the value of which was $27.96 greater than the production of fifty pullets working without lights. In the second year another pen of fifty pullets working under similar conditions produced 60.6 dozen eggs more than a pen of fifty pullets in an unlighted pen. The value of the increase was $34.42. One 75-watt light was used for each pen an average of two and one half hours daily for 140 days.

An average length of day of 12 to 13 hours gives the best results, according to the department. Longer light periods force the hens to eat more. Morning lights are the easiest and most practical because they can be turned on automatically and no dimming is required in the case of evening lighting.

The use of light does not pay, however, unless the best attention is also given to feeding, management, and housing of the flock. Grain should be put in the house after the pullets have gone to roost so as to be available for their early morning feed.

RACCOONS EASILY RAISED IN CAPTIVITY

The demand for live raccoons for both fur-bearing and restocking purposes has encouraged a great many persons to raise these animals in captivity. Raccoons, according to the Biological Survey of the United States Department of Agriculture, thrive in captivity, and consequently are easily handled. If the climate is suitable, a well-drained suburban or farm property with a generous supply of fresh drinking water is a good site on which to raise raccoons. Plenty of shade and some sunlight are essential to the health of the animals.

As raccoons are great climbers, trees are sometimes permitted to stand in their pens to furnish them a means of exercise, but such trees must be far enough away from the side walls to prevent the raccoons from climbing over and escaping. In many cases when there are no trees it is found advisable to cover the sides and top of the pen completely with stout woven-wire netting or to make a 2-foot overhang of galvanized iron around the top of the side walls. In addition the raccoon farmer must provide dens with removable nest boxes, such as those in common use for foxes.

Raccoons are easy to feed, because they relish and thrive on a variety of foods—dried bread mixed with milk, cereal mushes, cooked meats and meat scraps, and sweet fruits. They require more food than do foxes. Plenty of drinking water should be provided. As a rule only the raccoons possessing the darkest pelts are selected for breeding stock.

POLLEN CARRIES HAY FEVER CURE

Scientific research has revealed that hay fever—that annoying affliction of the mucous membrane of the eyes and nose that annually makes life miserable for millions of American sufferers—can be prevented by inoculation.

This information was disclosed recently by Dr. R. P. Wodehouse of New York, one of the noted specialists attending a session of the American Association for the Advancement of Science.

"Hay fever can be prevented by inoculating the sufferers with extracts of pollen grains which cause the affection," Dr. Wodehouse declared. "Although the symptoms of hay fever belong to summer, now is the time to take preventative treatment. Specific tests to learn the plants which cause people to contract hay fever need to be made in winter or early spring."

PIGEON WHISTLES

The carrier pigeons of the United States Army are now being equipped with bamboo whistles with which to scare away birds that might attack them. The whistles, very light, are attached to the birds' tails. The surprising and constant noise keeps all predatory birds away, even the trained hawks and falcons used by the Army.

The pigeon whistle originated with the Chinese. There are two principle types there: those that consist of bamboo tubes placed side by side, and those that are fastened to a gourd body or wind chest. The former type sometimes has as many as five tubes. The gourd whistle has a mouthpiece and small apertures to the number of ten or twelve.

The whistles are lacquered in yellow, red, brown and black, to protect the materials from the atmosphere. The instruments, carried by a flock of pigeons are all tuned to different keys, and the greater the confusion of sounds the greater the music, as the Chinese see it.

TURNING BREAD INTO CAKE

A recipe for turning bread into cake is supplied by a Kentucky housewife. Here is her secret:

"First I make a rich caramel frosting, using two cups sugar to one cup milk. The sugar is cooked to a golden brown syrup, then the milk is added. Boil this until it becomes thick and creamy. Dip the bread in the boiling frosting, coating first one side and then the other. This method always softens the bread. It may be cut in fancy shapes, nice for school box lunches or tea parties."

CITY BIRD SANCTUARY

Almost in the heart of Newark, N. J., a city of half a million inhabitants, there is an oasis for birds which bids fair to become the most popular stopping place in the town for the winged visitors, as well as for the feathered folk who make the city their home for parts or all of the year. Incidentally, provision is made for the human residents who may care to come and sit for a time to enjoy the activities of the birds.

In a big walled garden at the rear of the Newark Museum the Newark Bird Club has provided a plot of considerable size with all sorts of berry bushes and small fruits, with a small grove of nut-bearing trees not far away.

Birds in a large city, and a surprising number either make their homes in the towns or are rather frequent visitors, are often hard put to it to find food, especially in winter. Then, too, many birds apparently drop in for a rest on their migrations.

The Newark refuge, which not only provides food but also a large degree of shelter in winter, will also have a large bird-bath as soon as it can be erected.

The screened pavilion, provided for persons who desire to visit the refuge, is expected to attract many persons who seem to have the habit of carrying nuts and other tid-bits for the birds. Perhaps no better place will exist in the city for feeding birds than the walled garden at the rear of the Museum.

THE JUDGE'S JOSH

"LIGHT"

Once more we are reminded that while the world stays, time goes on, each year making the world richer for the things it leaves behind. Progress is the keynote of this modern age.

Electricity . . . the corner-stone of progress . . . has proven to be the golden opportunity. Daily more people are depending upon it for the home. Lighting, cooking and the household drudgeries are made easier and better by its use. In the days to come we will proudly look back upon the record of our accomplishments.

We have moved to our new location one-half block west of our old location. In our new and larger office, we feel that we are more capable of serving the people. Owing to our increased floor space we will be able to carry a complete line of electrical merchandise.

You are cordially invited to come in at any time and visit us in our new home.

Rev. Chambliss of Plainview filled the pulpit Sunday morning and again at night. Good attendance considering there is so much influenza scattered over the country.

A number of cases of entire families sick at one time with flu. Have heard of no fatalities in these parts. Seems to be some improvement in condition of affairs. Still it is quite prevalent most everywhere.

SURPRISE PARTY

Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock a surprise party was given by Misses Lucy and Marie Schmitz in honor of Raymond Schmitz.

After the guests had arrived various games were played, including winks, em. clap-in and clap-out, selling of forfeits, and musical chair.

At a late hour refreshments were served to the following: Dorothy Cash, Louise Upchurch, Bettye Sternberg, Mildred Middleton, Miss Adeline Strain, Hosen Foster, R. T. McDaniel, Eric Allison, Ogden Stroud, Herbert Slack, Willard Middleton, Jake and Wilford Taylor, Billy and Arthur Robinson, and George and Raymond Schmitz. Everyone departed declaring he had spent a very enjoyable evening, and regretted the damages that had been done by them.

EXAMINATIONS

Down the halls of C. H. S. last week one could hear a low rumbling sound from every nook and corner of the building. There must have been some danger ahead; because, it has been said that a bunch of horses begin to stamp and run, causing a low rumbling sound through the earth, when there is danger approaching. There was danger ahead for the students; for some of the sounds were audible if you were close enough, and the conversation sounded like this:

"Oh, gee! I dread that exam this afternoon. I just can't imagine why I was not exempted. I'll bet I am exempted next semester."

Well, the tale is told now. I guess the danger has come and gone. The students are gradually settling down again. Starting in for another semester.

NEW STUDENTS

There are several new students who have started to high school for the second semester.

Each class welcomes every new student who enters Canyon High. Mattie Witte came to Canyon from Iowa. All students like to hear Mattie talk for she possesses a northern brogue.

Mildred, Dal, and Bob Morse started to high school before the examinations. Everyone is glad to have them attending the high school.

"ONE-EYE" CONNOLLY

"One-Eye" Connolly's name has become a by-word. He is the gate crasher par excellence.

He has always got into everything free—everything from a first-night theatrical performance to a fistie heavyweight battle.

No guards could ever keep him out. He had a thousand clever methods. He was expected at all public functions, though nobody ever invited him. He got in—nobody knew how.

He never accepted or bought a ticket for anything. The other day he attracted a crowd in Brooklyn New York, and was found guilty of obstructing traffic. He was put into a cell for a brief time, and tearfully complained that his imprisonment was the ruin of his professional career.

We don't see why this happening should spoil his career.

True enough, he was conducted to his cell in a formal manner. He didn't have to "crash" the prison gates.

But then—he didn't have to pay to get in! And he got out free, too.

MEDDLERS

Thursday, the students assembled in the auditorium for the regular chapel announcements.

The most important announcement that Mr. Webb made was the "turning-off of gas meters." This is being done a great deal in town, and it means the death of many people if it is not stopped.

The students know that not any of their "bunch" would be guilty of meddling with such dangerous things, but it is best that everyone know the cause of many unexpected deaths.

The High School wishes to co-operate with the people of Canyon in putting a stop to the "meddling with gas meters."

Now that exams are over, programs are being changed, and several classes have been shifted. Some of the students have been taking half year courses so now that the new year's work has begun they are changing their work.

The "new" will wear off about Tuesday or Wednesday and everyone will settle down to several more hard working months. Some of the teachers have been changed so now the students will not be "bored" with the same teacher for the rest of the school term. Miss Rusk has taken the Economics class, instead of Mr. Carruth, and all the students seemed thrilled because Mr. Carruth was getting on to their "tricks."

DIES AT 113

Richland Springs, N. Y.—Mrs. Delina Filkins, one hundred and thirteen years old, believed to have been the states' oldest woman, died at the home of her son. She was born in Stark, Herkimer County, May 4, 1815.

"OH! WILLIE WE HAVE MISSED YOU!"

TO OUR TOWN FOLK:
A HAPPY NEW YEAR

Week after week during the past year we have chronicled your achievements and recorded your triumphs, rejoiced in your successes and sorrowed with you in your bereavements.

Now we start a New Year together, and the best wish we can make for you is that we may hear such news of you as it will be a delight to pass on to others through these columns.

A Happy New Year to you all!

Exes, Past and Present

One of the most scholarly students in Canyon High was Easton Allen, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Allen. He graduated from High School in 1917 and from College in 1920 with an unusually high record. He and his wife now live in Alpine, Texas, where he is a teacher of history in the Teachers College there.

GAME WITH CLOVIS

Saturday afternoon the Canyon Eagles' basketball men played a slow and uninteresting game with the Clovis team.

Neither team played well except during the first half the Eagles played a fair game. Yet the last half was slow for both teams. The game ended with Canyon enjoying the big end of a 21-11 score.

The girls of both towns played a game at the same time but the Eagles were defeated by Clovis by a large margin.

NINETEEN HUNDRED AND TWENTY NINE

Another leaf falls from the tree of Time—and 1929 is with us.

Seeing the old year out and halting the new one is a merry event that at the same time contains a deep element of tragedy. It reminds us that time is fleeting. Yet 1928 was a year so rich in accomplishments and adventures, and so marked by progress and prosperity, that we surely cannot complain of its brevity.

This was the year of the twenty-fifth anniversary of flying; and the year of the thrilling, heroic, epoch-making journey of the Graf Zeppelin.

This was a year in which the good will among nations was furthered as never before—a year of peace and friendship.

This was the year when "sound" and talking motion pictures grew out of their infancy, when the invention of the robot or mechanical man gave promise of a future lessening of the labor of men, when new machines like the combine harvester were invented to lighten the strenuous tasks of the farmer.

In this year radio was used to an extent never before even approached—as in the vast nation-wide hook-ups of political utterances.

The advances in radio, science, transportation, medicine, social welfare and intellectual fields during the past year have been many and varied. The gains made in every department of human activity makes us envision 1929 as a twelve month of still greater progress. We confidently look forward to a year in which mankind will make tremendous strides.

CANYON-PAMPA GAMES

The Canyon Eagles met the Pampa Harvesters in two tough games Friday. In the first game the score was, Canyon 29 and Pampa 33. In the second game the score was Canyon 16, Pampa 17.

This was quite a different result from the two games Pampa and Canyon played here. Canyon nearly doubled Pampa both games. At these games two of the first string men were unable to play.

BASEBALL 60 YEARS AGO

One of the pioneers in the great American game of baseball is David Starr Jordan, former president of Leland Stanford University, who is now nearly 80 years old. "When baseball first got under way in this country," he says, "we sent the blacksmith from our town over to Buffalo to see how it went. He brought back such glowing reports that we organized the Gainesville Zouaves, with red shirts and white trousers, and challenged all comers."

"I was a Zouave and developed into a heavy hitter, once knocking three home runs in a row. I thought the game offered a promising field of endeavor until one day I crashed into the catcher when both of us were after a pop fly, and broke my nose."

"However, I never lost my love of baseball, and I played with the Stanford faculty team until I was 58. Then I reluctantly gave up the game because my batting was slumping and my speed was slower."

JAZZING THE CLOCK

"Let me see, Jenkins, what time did I come home last night?"
"Three o'clock this morning, sir."
"And—what time did I get up yesterday morning?"
"Eight o'clock last night!"—Passing Show (London).

No. 2: "I don't think so, but we'll get a newspaper in the morning to make sure."

ELIZABETH CROSON IN CAR WRECK

Elizabeth Croson has a deep gash across her head, and two boys friends received several cuts and bruises, all of which resulted in a car wreck about half way between Canyon and Amarillo Sunday afternoon. It is not exactly known what caused the accident. One of the occupants reported that they turned out for another car to pass, and it is supposed that they struck the loose dirt on the side of the embankment which caused them to turn over. The Chevrolet Coupe in which they were in turned two flips and landed in the ditch. Elizabeth and one of the boys were knocked unconscious, but it is thought that neither of the three are seriously injured.

Her friends miss her very much in school and wish her good luck in her recovery.

NEW BOOKS

Quite a number of new books which will be added to the library have arrived. As nearly everyone knows these books are being purchased with the proceeds received from the play, "The Arrival of Kitty," presented by the faculty some time ago. About twenty-four books of fiction and about ten history books make up the list which are now here. The fiction is all very good and is all the best of literature.

SPANISH BANQUET

The greatest social event of the year at Canyon High School will be a Spanish banquet given by the Spanish students on Thursday night. Entertainments of all kinds will be given, dances, songs, etc. Spanish food will be served and everyone will wear Spanish costumes. This is the first banquet of its kind to be given in Canyon High School. The banquet will be in charge of the Home Economics Class, and a good time is expected by all.

SURPRISE PARTY

Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock a surprise party was given by Misses Lucy and Marie Schmitz in honor of Raymond Schmitz.

After the guests had arrived various games were played, including winks, em. clap-in and clap-out, selling of forfeits, and musical chair.

At a late hour refreshments were served to the following: Dorothy Cash, Louise Upchurch, Betty Sternberg, Mildred Middleton, Miss Adeline Strain, Hosea Foster, R. T. McDaniels, Eric Allison, Ogden Stroud, Herbert Slack, Wilford Middleton, Jake and Wilford Taylor, Billy and Arthur Robinson, and George and Raymond Schmitz. Everyone departed declaring he had spent a very enjoyable evening, and regretted the damages that had been done by them.

EXAMINATIONS

Down the halls of C. H. S. last week one could hear a low rumbling sound from every nook and corner of the building. There must have been some danger ahead, because it has been said that a bunch of horses begin to stamp and run, causing a low rumbling sound through the earth, when there is danger approaching. There was danger ahead for the students; for some of the sounds were audible if you were close enough, and the conversation sounded like this:

"Oh, gee! I dread that exam this afternoon. I just can't imagine why I was not exempted. I'll bet I am exempted next semester."

Well, the tale is told now. I guess the danger has come and gone. The students are gradually settling down again. Starting in for another semester.

There are several new students who have started to high school for the second semester.

HINTS FOR THE HOME

The background of architecture and furniture may endure for a long time—for generations, perhaps—but the accessories of the home change style with amazing frequency.

Pictures wrongly framed or hung too high, with peaked wires; bric-a-brac that is passe, or arranged in a way no longer considered "good"—such small decorative errors as these brand the home as out of date far quicker than do its furniture or rugs.

The sofa cushions, reading lamps and erstwhile library scarf; the decorative screen fittings for the dining room—look to them carefully, for subtle changes have been at work among them, refining, simplifying, making them to the home what her accessories are to the French woman's toilette—seals that stamp the ensemble as up to date, or frankly "out."

THE OLD HEN'S LAMENT

The old hen sat on a goose plum tree,
And said, "Nobody cares for me,
My food is what I find about—
I hunt for it 'til I am frazzled out.
My shelter is the starry sky,
And I watch the planets go sailing by
Until my eyes grow weak and dim.
Then I take a fresh grip on the limb,
And wish the morning light would come.
My owner says I'm on the bum,
He wants an egg each other day,
And thinks I ought to sing and lay.
I wish he had to sit out here,
And live on pickings all the year.
I'll bet a copper cent, by jing,
He wouldn't lay an egg from now 'til spring."
—Walter Davis.

PRESPIRATION

A few weeks ago President Coolidge, speaking upon the occasion of the presentation of the Congressional medal to Thomas A. Edison, recalled one of the great inventor's homely, yet forceful maxims—that "genius is one part inspiration and nine parts perspiration." And it occurs to us that this quite generally applies not alone to genius, but about equally to the successes of our smaller daily affairs. It is largely hard work, mental or physical, which brings success to the successful.

Probably the truth of the other maxim, that "there is always room at the top" can well be explained by the fact that many of us who are willing to acknowledge that we have at least the "one part inspiration" in our make-up, abhor and avoid the "equally necessary, yet disagreeable" "nine parts of perspiration."

The fact is that, unlike Mr. Edison, few of us have ever developed our full capacity for work; we daily along, using but a small fraction of the mental or physical abilities with which nature has endowed us. Time, the one priceless element in our lives which we cannot replace, we allow to pass away with small accomplishment.

To the able, efficient man, it is astonishing how little it takes to keep some of their fellows busy—rushing hither and thither, either mentally or in the flesh, with not much to show for it but a tired feeling and a deluded belief that they are overworked.

While, we, personally, have not progressed to a point where we can honestly subscribe to Mr. Edison's daily four hours for sleep, we admire and envy the orderly mind, the power of concentration, the love of his work, the determination to overcome failures, the mild tenacity of purpose—in other words, the "nine parts perspiration" which have made him the outstanding scientist of the age and one of the great benefactors of mankind. Not the least of the things which he has given us in his long and useful life is his demonstration of what man can make of his latent abilities if he will but use them and develop them to their utmost. Mr. Edison is our illustrious example of the joy which comes from intelligent labor crowned by accomplishment; and as we heard over the radio his merry little chuckle and listened to his brief words in accepting the token of honor and esteem in which he is held by his countrymen, we could but feel that here, in truth, was a man who had lived and enjoyed life to its fullest, blessed by work and rewarded by accomplishment.

"Have you a tea party on?" he inquired.

"No," said the man. "I'm working at the menagerie, and the kangaroo has kicked the elephant, so I want to make a bread poultice."

Fame of Sargon Spreads Over Entire Nation

Never before, perhaps, in all history has the demand for a proprietary medicine ever approached the wonderful record that is now being made by Sargon, the new scientific formula which has been accomplishing such remarkable results throughout this section. Its fame is rapidly spreading over the entire country and wherever introduced, Sargon is the most talked of medicine in the country today. Nothing like it has ever been seen before.

Sargon was first placed on the market just a little over six months ago. Its success was immediate and people everywhere were quick to recognize it in a new and epoch-making product—a medicine of great power and extraordinary merit. In leading cities where it has been placed on sale it has required from 70,000 to 100,000 bottles to supply the unprecedented demand, establishing a record probably never before equaled in the history of the drug trade.

Countless thousands of men and women, in all walks of life, suffering with stomach, liver and bowel troubles, some of them of long standing; as well as thousands of weak, thin, nervous men and women apparently on the verge of collapse have voluntarily come forward and testified that they have been fully restored to their normal health, strength and weight by its use.

Still others, who seemed fairly well, yet suffered with constipation in its worst form, indigestion, dyspepsia, headaches, shortness of breath, bad complexion, bad breath, loss of appetite, sleeplessness at night and of terribly depressed, depressed feelings, stated that they have been entirely relieved of these distressing symptoms and restored to health by its use.

Sargon is the result of the last ten years of world-wide scientific research; it embodies new knowledge of certain organs and fluids of the body recently come to light; it is helping build up run-down men and women by modern methods undreamed of a generation ago.

Sargon may be obtained in Canyon from J. J. Walker Drug Store.—Adv.

"My Gas Bills Are Too High"—

VERY OFTEN THEY ARE. We will tell you so and tell you why.

YOU ARE PAYING FOR NO MORE GAS THAN YOU BURN, but you are burning more than you need.

Long, yellow, wavering flames that float along the bottom of the utensils indicate the use of too much gas.

The United States Bureau of Mines, in a bulletin on the correct use of natural gas in the home, describes fifteen different ways this fuel is wasted.

All of these are due to faulty apparatus, faulty knowledge of how to burn gas, or to carelessness on the part of the consumer.

HINTS FOR THE HOME

The background of architecture and furniture may endure for a long time—for generations, perhaps—but the accessories of the home change style with amazing frequency.

Pictures wrongly framed or hung too high, with peaked wires; bric-a-brac that is passe, or arranged in a way no longer considered "good"—such small decorative errors as these brand the home as out of date far quicker than do its furniture or rugs.

The sofa cushions, reading lamps and erstwhile library scarf; the decorative screen fittings for the dining room—look to them carefully, for subtle changes have been at work among them, refining, simplifying, making them to the home what her accessories are to the French woman's toilette—seals that stamp the ensemble as up to date, or frankly "out."

Outlook Good For 1929 Book, Staff Heads Say

Both editor and business manager of Le Mirage are elated over prospects for the 1929 edition of the yearbook. Mr. Forrest states that the financial outlook was never better and Miss Strain is getting off a large shipment of material today which will considerably lighten her responsibilities for a few days at the least.

The contest for the election of a college queen is now in full swing. Nominations were made by all students of the college at the chapel hour last Tuesday and those three girls who received the highest votes were selected from the large group nominated. These three proved to be Elizabeth Hayes, Iris Ribble, and Anna Throckmorton. Voting for the queen which began last Saturday at noon will continue until Thursday noon. Each student is allowed one free vote and as many additional votes as he likes provided that he pay one cent for each vote. The voting booth is located just in front of the publications office on the first floor.

Class favorites are to be selected also. All classes are asked to meet Thursday morning at the regular hour for the purpose of selecting these class favorites. Each class is to select two favorites, one man and one woman of the college. Then the following Saturday by democratic vote, six favorites will be chosen from the eight nominees of the classes.

The shipment which left today for the engravers contains all organization pictures, all training school pictures, and most of the athletic and college life pictures. After this shipment there remains only a few athletic pictures, a few in the college life section, and the favorites.

To date seven hundred copies of Le Mirage have been sold. This is a decided increase over any previous year's sales.

The contest for the election of a college queen is now in full swing. Nominations were made by all students of the college at the chapel hour last Tuesday and those three girls who received the highest votes were selected from the large group nominated. These three proved to be Elizabeth Hayes, Iris Ribble, and Anna Throckmorton. Voting for the queen which began last Saturday at noon will continue until Thursday noon. Each student is allowed one free vote and as many additional votes as he likes provided that he pay one cent for each vote. The voting booth is located just in front of the publications office on the first floor.

Class favorites are to be selected also. All classes are asked to meet Thursday morning at the regular hour for the purpose of selecting these class favorites. Each class is to select two favorites, one man and one woman of the college. Then the following Saturday by democratic vote, six favorites will be chosen from the eight nominees of the classes.

The shipment which left today for the engravers contains all organization pictures, all training school pictures, and most of the athletic and college life pictures. After this shipment there remains only a few athletic pictures, a few in the college life section, and the favorites.

To date seven hundred copies of Le Mirage have been sold. This is a decided increase over any previous year's sales.

Prosperity of West Texas Maintained in 1928

(By A. M. Bourland, President of West Texas Chamber of Commerce.)

A spirit of optimism prevails in West Texas. During the year now closed there have been some drawbacks. These were caused largely because of the low levels in the price of oil, and unfavorable weather in some sections.

But even with these the West has had a prosperous year. Banks have good deposits, building permits have been higher this year than any previous year and general improvements in the urban and rural sections have been marked.

Prices of livestock generally and cattle in particular have been satisfactory and the year 1929 promises increased prosperity along all lines.

There are evidences that point to increased prices in petroleum products and, since West Texas is now a major oil producing section, even a slight increase in prices of crude oil would add materially to the prosperity of the country.

Much Rail Building

It is known that practically all of the railroad building in the Union during the past year was in West Texas. The Fort Worth and Denver System being leaders in this direction, with the Quanah, Acme and Pacific a near rival. Other lines are being planned, and the forecast is made that there will be more railroad building in West Texas during the year 1929 than in the year just closed.

In the Panhandle and lower Plains section the grain crops were good last year, and in the Trans-Canadian country wheat has never been better. At this time there is a good season in practically every section of West Texas and a good season at this time of the year presages a good crop during the coming year.

Buying Power Increased

The buying power of West Texas is steadily on the increase. It can be stated in this connection that there is less buying of luxuries and more of necessities. The short crops in some sections have been overcome by the stability of livestock markets, the increase in production of oil and gas, and the opening of new gas and oil fields. The stability of the West is shown in other things, such as increases in bank clearings, in post-office receipts and in the increase in poultry and dairy products. The two latter industries have in reality been of inestimable value and it is interesting to note the decided increase in both.

Another evidence of prosperity is the investments that are being made by the public utilities in West Texas.

West Texas faces the year 1929 with full confidence and with a feeling of security in her continued and increased prosperity.

BIG MEN FROM SMALL TOWNS

Franklin Delano Roosevelt, The new Governor of New York—the Empire State—is a small town product. Franklin D. Roosevelt is known from one end of the country to the other as a distinguished lawyer and an exceptionally frank, honest politician. Handicapped by physical disabilities arising from an illness of infantile paralysis, he has nevertheless achieved the high position he now holds.

So much in demand was he, because of his sterling qualities, that no excuse was taken when he was called upon to run for Governor. Again and again Roosevelt has been brought to the fore while seeking retirement and rest, and has yielded to the wishes of his compatriots because of an unselfish desire to be of service.

Born at Hyde Park, N. J., in 1882, he was admitted to the bar in 1907. He was a member of the New York Senate from 1910 to 1913, when he became assistant Secretary of the Navy, holding this post until 1920. That year he was the Democratic nominee for Vice-President.

He has been active in many public enterprises, in which he gave such an example of devotion, efficiency and capability that he was literally "drafted" as a candidate for Governor. His career should be an inspiration to all small town youths and to those who are in any way physically handicapped.

About Your Health

HINTS ON COOKING

The lower animals in natural state, live on food that is uncooked, and do so, unless they become domesticated. With highly organized man, it is different; for the most part, his nourishment is more perfect with cooked foods. Cooking serves two principal purposes; tough fibers are made tender—and, heat sterilizes. In these days of many microbes, the latter is a very important item. Infected food is one of the most common causes of disease.

A very common fault is in the overcooking of vegetables; the humble turnip and the plebeian cabbage are frequently blamed for causing digestive disturbances, when the fault is entirely in their being over-cooked. Both of these useful vegetables contain vitamins that are destroyed if kept too long in the kettle; neither should be cooked over fifteen minutes. Old or tough specimens, that will not surrender in less than an hour's boiling are unfit for use—just so much bulk of no nutritive value.

Cabbage and turnips should be steamed. Enough water in your kettle to almost cover the vegetable and seasoning, should make enough steam to thoroughly tender them in the quarter of an hour devoted to that purpose.

Frying is a make-shift, a time-saver. Fried foods are at the other extreme—they are cooked too fast; the vital heat, the hard and indigestible parts being left. Meats should be cooked in a vessel nearly air-tight, and in their own juices. A "Dutch oven" is admirable for the purpose.

It ain't the guns nor armament, nor funds that they can pay But the close cooperation that makes them win the day— It ain't the individual nor the army as a whole, But the everlastin' team-work of every bloomin' soul. —Rudyard Kipling.

The Outstanding Chevrolet of Chevrolet History

-a Six in the price range of the four!

represents 4 years of Development and over a Million miles of Testing

Years ago, the Chevrolet Motor Company designed and built its first experimental six-cylinder motor. This far-sighted step was taken because Chevrolet engineers knew that the six-cylinder motor is inherently the most perfectly balanced motor—the ideal power plant to meet the growing public demand for greater reserve power, faster get-away and, above all—smooth, quiet performance.

During the last four years, over a hundred six-cylinder motors were built by Chevrolet engineers and tested on the General Motors Proving Ground.

Day and night, through winter's cold and summer's heat, the incessant testing went on—until the present motor was developed and finally pronounced correct.

At the same time other Chevrolet engineers were perfecting other parts of the chassis. And another great automotive organization—the Fisher Body Corporation—was devoting its gigantic resources to the creation of the finest, sturdiest and most beautiful bodies ever offered on a low-priced automobile.

As a result, the Outstanding Chevrolet offers an order of well-balanced excellence—a combination of performance, comfort, beauty and handling ease that is truly remarkable—with a fuel-economy of better than 20 miles to the gallon of gasoline.

You owe it to yourself to see and inspect this remarkable car. Come in today!

Buffaloes

Walton's state didn't get away with a thing. Swirling, spinning, pivoting, and shooting from positions which would baffle the most astute of acrobats, Ward rang the bell three times, the last coming just as the gun terminated festivities for the evening. Fifteen co-eds and one faculty member then fainted! In this game Ward and Lowes tied for big count with ten a piece. Harris led the Pups with seven.

The second encounter was as much of a thriller as the opener. In the first half each member of the home team scored a field goal to make a total of ten for the Herd to eight for the Hounds, four of which had been made via the free throw route. In this game the visitors chose to play defensively from the start, each man taking a Buff and attempting to prevent that gentleman from scoring, this method of procedure proved to be the reason of their ultimate downfall. The men from the Sooner State tied the score in the closing minute with a supreme spurt. Then, as on the first night, the melee became intensely heated. A little before the game closed the Dogs took a one point lead. Pat Gerald tied the thing up with a free pitch and it was at this point, with a minute to go, that the man for man defensive tactics of the invaders proved to be their undoing. When a Buff would get the ball the remainder of the Maroon and White warriors would pull to the sides, each man taking his guarding opponent with him, then the individual with the ball would dash madly down the floor outrunning his opponent to get a pretty good shot. Three times in the last sixty seconds of play did this happen and three times did the Buffs score field goals—the margin of victory.

The outstanding factor in the success of the Buffaloes was the superb defensive work of Pat Gerald and Elvis Ward. Of course the efforts of the other members must not be discounted, but had not the work of the guards been phenomenal the work of the others would have come to naught. Crump and Keith were covered from start to finish in both games and it is remarkable that they did as well in an offensive way as they did. In the last game J. Cooper of the visitors walked away with the scoring honors making seven points. Ward, Crump, and Keith scored six apiece for W. T. The scores.
